

Mental Health Resources at the University of Alberta

Counselling and Clinical Services	780-492-5205
2-600 Students' Union Building	8am – 4pm (M, Th, F), 8am – 7pm (T, W)
Initial consultations and all services, with the exception of group therapy programs (which have a minimal fee), are free of charge. Personal, Relationship, and Family Therapy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> We provide students with professional psychological therapy and treatment emphasizing a shorter-term model, including individual, relationship, and family therapy. We assist students with a wide range of mental health and life concerns. Free Drop-In Workshops: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Workshops are casual, one-time events that teach participants practical and realistic strategies to deal with a particular mental health topic. Group Therapy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Groups are ongoing and offer a supportive and safe environment for participants to learn strategies to overcome psychological challenges. Joining a therapy group requires an initial consultation. Listening to Support Students in Distress: Front Line Staff Training: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Front line workers can often be the first point of contact for students in distress. To better support and navigate students to appropriate campus and community resources, the Community Social Work Team in partnership with Counselling and Clinical Services have developed a practical 60-minute workshop to address basic coping skills and strategies for U of A staff members who work directly with students.
